

Spirit of Landscape: California's Lower Owens River Valley

Annual Conference of the California Garden and Landscape History Society

September 26-28, 2008, Lone Pine, California

Lectures and tours featuring:

- the Alabama Hills in Western film
- the gardens of Manzanar
- Mary Austin, voice of the landscape
- local gardens: native, vernacular, historic
- the re-watering of the Lower Owens River

The ancient rock formations called the Alabama Hills have been the setting for numerous western films and television series. Photo © 2008 J.M. Horton

The Lower Owens River re-watering project is restoring a portion of the ecosystem. Photo © 2008 J.M. Horton

The Mess Hall Garden at Manzanar.
Photo © 2008 J.M. Horton

Fees

Conference Fee until August 29
CGLHS Members:	$190.00
Non-members:	$230.00
Saturday Dinner (optional):	$50.00
Conference Fee after August 29
CGLHS Members:	$240.00
Non-members:	$280.00

*Space is limited:
Please register early.*

California
Garden &
Landscape
History Society

“...your true Californian prays to his land as much as ever the early Roman did, and pours on it libations of water and continuous incense of praise.”

~Mary Austin, 1914

REGISTRATION & INFORMATION:

www.cglhs.org

email: conference@cglhs.org

Aaron Landworth, 310-453-1180

Co-sponsors:

The National Park
Service / Manzanar
National Historic Site

The Garden
Conservancy

Beverly & Jim Rogers
Museum of Lone
Pine Film History

Eastern California
Museum

Independence
Civic Club

Owens Valley
Committee